Re: United States v. Tyler Briggs, 10-CR-607 (JBW)

Dear Judge Weinstein:

The government respectfully submits this letter to advise the Court that the government and the Probation Department do not object to the defendant Tyler Briggs's motion for early termination of supervised release. The government has received and reviewed the defendant's pro se motion, dated December 20, 2019, outlining the reasons for his request. The government has discussed the matter with the Probation Department and defense counsel. Based on those discussions, the government has no objection to the defendant's supervised release being terminated early.

A hearing on the defendant's motion has been scheduled for February 12, 2020, at 11:30 a.m. In light of the parties' positions, the parties and the Probation Department respectfully submit that a hearing is no longer necessary. However, if a hearing is ordered, both the government and the defendant are unavailable on February 12, 2020, due to scheduling conflicts. The undersigned will be out of the country from February 21 to March 2, 2020. Defense counsel has a trial scheduled from March 2 to early April.

*No hearing is required. On consent supervised release is terminated forthwith.
